All 50 States and Washington D.C. have the ability to connect data between systems. 47 States and D.C. received federal SLDS grants. 16 States + D.C. have a full P20W system. 37 States + D.C. connect data between at least 2 of the 4 core agencies. 14 states plus D.C. created their system through statute or legislation. 18 states created their system through a federal grant. 3 states created their system through MOUs. 2 states created their system by executive order.